STATEMENT OF OPERATING PROCEDURES FOR OCMC, INC.

OCMC, Inc., d/b/a Opticom and One Call Communications, Inc. is a provider of operator services and traditional long distance. In providing operator services, OCMC, does not have nor does it maintain any CPNI. However, if the situation would arise, OCMC requires all the data to be stored in databases that require security clearance and security passwords to protect the information. The data will be stored in a secure room with card access to only those individuals who have been approved to have access and have a need to know. Further, all requests for CPNI data would require approval from the President, Executive Vice President or the Chief Financial Officer.

OCMC does not market to the general public but to agents who manage and own payphones. As such, OCMC is not in a position to have consumer's name and address. In fact, the end users that OCMC provides operator services to are considered the customers of the local exchange carrier. Thus, OCMC does not have access to any CPNI that is useable to it or commercially marketable anyone else. If OCMC was to obtain this information, it would not sell or market this information. Further, OCMC has no affiliates.

In general, OCMC protects all its data with security passwords, different levels of access to computer data and card access where the data is physically stored. Further, the President,

Executive Vice President or the Chief Financial Officer must approve any request for customer data.

Respectfully submitted,
